

19–22 MARCH 2020

Four Days ON THE ISLAND

LAUNCESTON, TASMANIA

Connect - Learn - Share

Close on the heels of a very successful event in Adelaide, the 2020 ANZSOM Annual Scientific Meeting will be something out of the ordinary with “Four Days on the Island” to connect, learn and share in the picturesque historic town of Launceston, Tasmania. The conference venue, Peppers Silos Launceston, is idyllically located on the banks of the Tamar, offering sweeping views over the river and just a short walk to the city centre. The location, combined with a diverse selection of site visits, workshops and technical sessions, as well as numerous social and networking events will provide a unique and memorable experience.

On behalf of the Organising Committee for ASM2020, including AFOEM as our Scientific Program Partner, we are pleased to invite you to Launceston – Thursday March 19 to Sunday March 22 2020!

PRE-CONFERENCE WORKSHOPS – 8.00AM TO 5.00PM

You nailed it! Presentation & media skills workshop ($700 member/ $800 non-member)

We all admire and envy those who can deliver a great presentation! This interactive workshop, delivered by actor team Imogene and Christoph Hewett from Resonant Integrity, will introduce skills and techniques to help you create and deliver impactful and inspiring presentations, whether to your work team or an audience of 100. Content will include: contextualisation, emotional intelligence, engaging the audience, and staying on topic, as well as performance tips and multiple approaches to concept presentation. It will also specifically address the challenges of communicating with the media, with strategies to ensure clarity of message so that you optimise impact and reduce risk.

Audiometry Skills Workshop ($300 member / $400 non-member)

Audiometry is a core component of occupational health practice, yet accuracy and quality of tests can be influenced by numerous factors. This full-day workshop, delivered by Glenn Johnson from The Hearing Company, provides hands-on training in the basic skills required to conduct accurate hearing tests, manage clients and act on results. It includes a course manual and use of practice equipment, as well as case discussion. Ideal for those looking for basic training or a useful refresher and reminder of the factors to be managed in providing quality audiometry testing.

WORKSITE VISITS – 4 VISITS IN THE AFTERNOON

See details below – included in Full Registration, not available for Day Registration.

WELCOME RECEPTION

The Peppers Silo Hotel will host the Welcome Reception on Thursday evening, where guests will enjoy innovative cuisine incorporating fresh Tasmanian ingredients and a selection of local wines. The Welcome Reception is included in Full Registration, and may be purchased separately for Day Registrants and guests / partners. The reception is proudly sponsored by SonicHealth Plus.

Worksite visits

Full Registration delegates will provide three separate opportunities to attend site visits across Launceston - on Thursday afternoon, Friday morning and Friday afternoon. The Friday visits are also available to Day Registrants. Visits to local agricultural, industrial, medical and educational worksites will provide insight into the varying nature of work and the issues facing employers, employees and health professionals. Further details will be available on the conference website and delegates will have an opportunity to select their preferred site visits before attending the conference.

Friday 20 March

WORKSHOP – CPR SKILLS UPDATE – 9.00AM TO 12.00PM

A popular feature of the ASM, the CPR Skills Update provides an opportunity to meet your certification requirements. In line with the specifications for HLTAID001 Provide Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation, the course will cover response to emergency situations, performance of CPR, communication of details of the incident, and administering defibrillation.

WORKSITE VISITS – 4 VISITS IN THE MORNING & AFTERNOON

CONFERENCE DINNER

Josef Chromy Wines provides a spectacular setting for the main Conference Dinner, located on a 61 hectare vineyard estate just south of Launceston. Josef and his team combine attentive service, quality produce and careful attention to detail, guaranteeing a night to remember. The dinner is proudly sponsored by mlcoa.

- The role of exercise physiology in occupational rehabilitation & injury prevention (case studies)

LUNCH – CONFERENCE WRAP

Finishing off the conference in style, a final day lunch will be provided to delegates while the conference organisers announce the wrap and prizes awarded.

Social Events & Partner Activities

The social program provides an excellent opportunity to network with colleagues:

- Welcome Reception, Thursday 19 March, Peppers Silo Hotel
- Conference Dinner, Friday 20 March, Josef Chromy Winery
- 'Surprising Launceston', Saturday 21 March

The Welcome Reception and 'Surprising Launceston' are included in the Full Registration. Tickets to these events may also be purchased separately for guests or day registrants. Dinner is purchased separately for all delegates.

While there will not be a formal partner's program this year, Launceston boasts a smorgasbord of historical, cultural and natural experiences – all close at hand. See the ANZSOM website for information to plan your visit. Guests and partners are also welcome to attend the Welcome Reception, Conference Dinner and 'Surprising Launceston'. See the registration form for prices.

Accommodation

Bringing history to life on the banks of the idyllic Tamar River is the unique, characterful Peppers Silo Hotel. Dating back to the 1960's, the heritage building, reaching 35 metres high and containing four large silos that once held grain, is an iconic landmark now converted into a sophisticated nine-storey hotel providing a distinctive place to stay in Launceston. Designed within the original silos and the new North tower are beautifully appointed modern hotel rooms.

Overlooking nearby Seaport, Royal Park, the Tamar River Basin and Cataract Gorge, guests are centrally placed to walk from this Launceston hotel to the city centre, with public transport a mere five-minute stroll away across the footbridge, linking Seaport and Kings Wharf together.

See the website for more details and options. Mention ANZSOM when booking to receive a 15% discount.
