Your employees benefit from:

EDUCATION & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

They can learn anytime and anywhere with our library of online learning modules. Educational events are offered locally in each state and nationally through our annual conference. Learning Update newsletters help keep them up to date with information, resources and events.

NETWORKING & COLLABORATION

Your employees can share and access knowledge and expertise by connecting with health professionals from a wide range of backgrounds. They can also tap in to leaders and influencers across the occupational health industry.

ENGAGEMENT, ADVOCACY & RECOGNITION

There are numerous opportunities to be involved and be a voice to promote occupational health interests. Your employees can also contribute their expertise through external representation and activities to inform government policies. ANZSOM thrives on the input and experience of members in their contribution to the Society and its

The Organising Committee for ASM2020, including AFOEM as our Scientific Program Partner, is pleased to announce that registrations are now open!

Close on the heels of a very successful event in Adelaide, the 2020 ASM will be something out of the ordinary with “Four Days on the Island” to connect, learn and share in the picturesque historic town of Launceston, Tasmania.

The conference venue, Peppers Silos Launceston, is idyllically located on the banks of the Tamar, offering sweeping views over the river and just a short walk to the city centre. The location, combined with a diverse selection of site visits, workshops and technical sessions, as well as numerous social and networking events will provide a unique and memorable experience.
