

ANZSOM & AFOEM | NSW / ACT Branch

CHRISTMAS MEETING 2019

DR STEVEN NG MEMORIAL CPD MEETING 2019

Work- it's a Four Letter Word

Presentation by Nick Glozier

Professor of Psychological Medicine Psychiatry, Central Clinical School and Brain & Mind Centre

Date: Tuesday 19 November, 2019

- 3:30pm - 5:30pm: Optional pre-event 9 holes of golf at beautiful Northbridge Golf Course (partners welcome):
Email robyn.dye@ixom.com to book this
- 6:00pm - 7:00pm: Welcome drinks and canapes
- 7:00pm onward: Dinner and talk

Venue: Northbridge Golf Club Harbourview Room, Sailors Bay Rd, Northbridge

Costs: $70pp, $130 for couples*

Costs inclusive of welcome drinks and canapes, full Christmas dinner with all the lashings at Harbourview restaurant, premium wines selected by Tom Rosenthal, handmade Christmas desserts, tea/coffee and a very interesting talk by an entertaining speaker

Register via trybooking at <https://www.trybooking.com/BGEKB>

About Nick:

Nick Glozier is Professor of Psychological Medicine at the Brain and Mind Centre, University of Sydney where he runs a clinical trials evaluating novel drug, digital and behavioural interventions for depression, sleep and cognition. He compiled the evidence based for what actually works for the Government's Mentally Healthy Workplace program and advises the World Health Organisation, Insurers, RUOK, SIRA and employers addressing workplace mental ill-health and wellbeing.