

You Nailed It!

Presentation Skills Workshop

Pre-conference Workshop

We all admire and envy those who can deliver a great presentation! Well, here is your chance to step up and stand out...

As part of the ANZSOM Annual Scientific Meeting in Launceston we are delighted to host an interactive hands on workshop delivered by actor team Imogene and Christoph Hewett from Resonant Integrity. With their unique and engaging approach, they will introduce skills and techniques to help you create and deliver impactful and inspiring presentations, whether to your work team or an audience of 100.

Content will include: contextualisation, emotional intelligence, engaging the audience, and staying on topic, as well as performance tips and multiple approaches to concept presentation. It will also address the challenges of communicating with the media, with strategies to ensure clarity of message so that you optimise impact and reduce risk.

Course Presenters:

Imogene Hewett, Director, Christoph Hewett, Executive Manager, Resonant Integrity

WHEN: Thursday, 19 November 2020, 8.00am-5.00pm | WHERE: Peppers Silo Hotel | PRICE: $700 for ANZSOM & AFOEM Members, $800 for non-members | Morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea will be provided.
